Other Assets - Lots Acquired

The deeds on properties within the jurisdiction of Woodcreek Property Owners' Association grant a lien to the Association. This gives the Association the right to file liens on those properties with unpaid maintenance fees. Occasionally, the Association acquires lots by quitclaim deeds from property owners, in payment of maintenance fees due on the lots. Beginning in 1999, the Association accepted lots in the flood plane in exchange for unpaid maintenance fees with proof that the property taxes were paid. The Association is holding these lots for use as a green belt or park area in the future.

Other properties are to be offered for sale to the general public, with care given to prevent acquisition or benefit by any parties related to the Association.
